Dear ASCHP Member,

We are excited to let you know that our website has had a complete makeover. The upgrade is more than a fresh coat of paint; it is a practical step that brings our digital home in line with the professional standards you expect in 2025.

Why we changed the site

- A cleaner, modern look gives you, our members, and the public greater confidence in our brand and organisation;
- Simpler navigation means you can reach key pages such as registration, accreditation, or contact details in just a click or two;
- Mobile-first design lets you do everything on your phone or tablet, whether you are renewing your membership at a coffee shop or checking CPD requirements between appointments;
- Built-in online forms replace the old PDFs. No more printing, scanning, or e-mailing – you complete and submit in one smooth flow and, where a payment is needed, pay on the spot;
- Quicker page loads and stronger security come from new, lightweight code, an up-to-date tech stack, and secure hosting;
- Better search-engine visibility (SEO) makes it easier for prospective clients and industry partners to find ASCHP and its members, giving you greater exposure.

What this means for you:

- Less admin; forms auto-fill, data saves instantly, and confirmation e-mails reach you within seconds;
- More credibility; a polished, consistent visual identity boosts trust with clients, employers, and regulatory bodies;
- Future-proof features; the new structure lets us add member-only resources, CPD video courses, and other tools without starting from scratch.

Thank you for being part of ASCHP and for supporting our move towards a smarter, more user-friendly digital presence. I believe the new platform will save you time, raise our collective profile, and strengthen the professional standing of supportive counsellors and holistic practitioners across South Africa.
